Resilience and Mindfulness Toolbox
(Mon 3.30-4.45pm, 7-10yo)
This four week program offers children the opportunity to train the brain to manage emotional responses using the latest neuroscientific research. Cheryne Blom comes to us through parent recommendations, so we know her methodology works. She will train children in the three keys to mindfulness: see (visualisation/creating a happy place for the mind), hear (connecting inner self talk and creating positive self talk) and feel (using breathing techniques and gaining awareness of body reactions). Its not a “hippy” activity, its science of the mind that develops executive functioning in the pre frontal cortex, helps teach children core values and is effective in lowering anxiety and other stresses.
