Governance and Management Policy

Aim
The Peter Toms Early Learning Centre aims to ensure that positive working relationships are formed between all educators and management. Educators and management will at all times conduct themselves in an ethical manner and strive to make all interactions positive and compliant with the centre’s philosophy.

The Peter Toms Early Learning Centre is at Brighton Grammar School and operates under The Headmaster, Mr Ross Featherston is the Chief Executive Officer (CEO) of Brighton Grammar School.
The Senior Executive consists of the Headmaster, Director of Teaching and Learning, Head of Senior School, Head of Middle School, Head of Junior School, Director of Business and Support Services, Director of Marketing and Community Relations, Director of Special Projects and Community Engagement and Director of Human Resources.
A supporting structure of leaders work with these individuals to deliver strategic and operational outcomes, underpinning our overarching intent as a learning community, passionate about developing, inspiring and guiding a boy on his journey to manhood.
The School Council is the governing body, with responsibility for the overall management of the School vested in the Headmaster, Mr Ross Featherston. The Council consists of representatives from all sections of the Community - parents, past parents, Old Boys and nominees of St Andrews Vestry.
The organisational charts that are attached below provide an overview of the key roles in each section of the School. They are current at the time of posting but are subject to change.