Centre and Service Details

Amelia Barrow is the Nominated Supervisor, Educational Leader and the Director of The Peter Toms Early Learning Centre. Amelia has an extensive background in boys’ education in early childhood education. She has completed her Bachelor in Early Childhood Education, Postgraduate qualifications in disabilities and impairments, and has a Masters Degree in Education. Currently, she is a Doctor of Education candidate at the University of Melbourne. Amelia will specifically monitor all children’s programs, children’s development and staff development. She also oversees specialist programs for ELC children. Specialist programs include Physical Education, Music & Movement, Cooking, Library & Literacy, and Buddy Program.

Kathy Pitt, Jess Kenny, Melissa Manaras, Megan Gibbs, Rebecca Thornton, Marg Coyne, Felicity Jones & Sandra Lonsdale are the centre’s Responsible Person’s. In Amelia’s absence, Kathy Pitt will ensure that all regulations and policies are followed.

The Peter Toms Early Learning Centre is in operation based on the Brighton Grammar School Term dates as follows for 2016:

Term 1: 29 January – 24 March
Term 2: 11 April – 17 June
Term 3: 13 July – 16 September
Term 4: 4 October – 8 December